World-Class Speakers for unmissable Opening Session at LIVES 2013

The Opening Session of LIVES 2013, ESICM’s 26th Annual Congress will kick off on Sunday, October 6th with topical, thought-provoking presentations by world-class leaders from across the fields of infectious disease, biomedical research and public health policy.

JEREMY FARRAR ~ Critical Care & Emerging Infections - The Smarter Canary

After 17 years working in Asia on the front line of the battle with infectious diseases, from dengue and typhoid to severe acute respiratory syndrome (SARS) and H7N9 avian influenza, Oxford Professor Farrar is considered one of the world’s leading experts in infectious diseases. Trained in neurology, and immunology, Director of the Wellcome Trust, one of the world's largest charities funding biomedical research, Prof. Farrar is uniquely suited to present an in-depth and inspiring talk on critical care and emerging global infections - a timely and important topic for practicing ICM professionals.

MAJID EZZATI ~ The Global Burden of Disease 2010

Professor Ezzati is the Chair of Global Environmental Health at Imperial College London and Affiliate Professor of Global Health at the Institute for Health Metrics and Evaluation (IHME) at the University of Washington. He was awarded the WHO Global Health Leadership Post-Doctoral Fellowship in 2000 and was Lead Scientist for the Comparative Risk Assessment Project at the World Health Organisation. As one of the leading investigators of the Global Burden of Diseases project and a leading expert on global health, he will provide a riveting presentation offering novel health perspectives on the emergence of diseases for healthcare professionals.
